Region Show

Our region show was held on the hottest weekend in recent memory at the Virginia Horse Center in Lexington, Virginia. The weather did not wilt the spirits of the ponies, and most of the riders kept up a brave face as well. Saturday morning started early with dressage and combined test rides, while the afternoon was dedicated to the Mountain and Moorland division and the Connemara in hand classes. Marynell Eyeles led a team of cheerful, hardworking volunteers, without whom the show would not be possible. So many people gave their entire weekend to the service of our show that it would be impossible to give proper reward to them all.

Marynell, with Janet and Tim, dressage scorekeepers

Six Balmullo Farm young riders once again wowed us with their well rehearsed and presented musical quadrille. Alexandra and Donna Duckworth deserve all our respect for keeping the chaos of so many ponies, girls, and parents under control for the whole weekend and getting everyone to their classes in time to win a boatload of ribbons.
This was the first show in many years that we did not have the super-capable Anne Moe as our show secretary, and we wondered how we could manage without her. Suzanne Phelps stepped up to fill Anne’s giant boots and did a fabulous job on short notice with little instruction. Holly Richard was back in the secretary tent for her third year keeping the ribbons and other prizes in order and handed out to the proper winners.

Saturday wound down with the exhibitors’ dinner, held in air-conditioned comfort in the colosseum, where we had a view of the Mustang make-over finals being held while we ate. As it was the thirtieth anniversary of the region show, we took time to share stories of the early years, how Connemaras came into our lives, and the many people and pony connections that make our region special.

Sunday is our day for performance classes, as well as fun. Once again the trail class was held outside of the ring, up on top of the hill at the horse center, making a fantastic backdrop for photos.

We also hosted the inspection team on Sunday, and saw six ponies presented to Kathy Lucas, Sarah McCrae, Catherine Mack, and Gloria LaCroix.

Our show would not be complete without the beautiful Connemara Boutique setting up shop, and Melanie and Linda Trimper also ran the silent auction of donated items which raised hundreds of dollars for our region. Many thanks go out to those who donated to the auction, both goods and bids.

Pony Tales

Molly Judge, a new member, is the proud owner of halfbred Polaris Treasurestone (*Hearnesbrook Dunoon x Polaris Rosemary by Greystone Ian Mcvai) She is currently competing “Cody” at training level dressage, but has also given sidesaddle a try. Another example of “doing it all.”

New Books
Pat was the editor of the American Connemara magazine during that time, and used material from those issues as well as other publications to rwork and craft a charming history of the ACPS over those years. The preface was written by Catherine Mack and the book is full of photographs that were contributed by ACPS members all over the U.S.
The cost of production was largely borne by a sponsor, so the books are available for a $30 contribution to the ACPS Foundation—which was developed in part by Pat Lightbody's husband, Jim! Sally Oxnard was the editor and will have books at the ACPS Annual Meeting in Vancouver, Washington. She can be contacted at stoxnard@gmail.com, or mail your check. payable to ACPS Foundation to her at 5 Greenleaf Drive, Exeter, NH 03833.

From Marilyn Cheek:

Today I received a most interesting message from a gentleman named Michael Anders who saw the ad for my stallion at TriCounty Feed. He then sent me an email saying how he hopes to come to the next show where Joey will be performing and then said, "Please find attached my new young adult novel, Voices on the Wind, and my testament to the joys of our ancient Irish breedfriends the Hobby and Galway, kin of the Connemara and the progenitors of the Narragansett Pacer and the brave mares (the Daughters of Freedom) of Paul Revere's ride.

Tullymor's Clementine Rose wants her forever home. WTC, jumps. A little shy until she gets to know you. Is purebred but registered a halfbred due to no fault of her own. 10 years old, has had one foal. Special this month only, $2500. balmullofarm@windstream.net
